

PRICE LIST – SPRING 2022

Since our last list of Autumn 2020, recent events have had a considerable impact on the wine trade. Production and distribution costs have increased and supply chains have been interrupted by the pandemic.

On top of these factors, crop failures in 2021 due to adverse frosts in New Zealand and France, especially Burgundy and the Loire have led to considerable shortages of some wines with a corresponding impact on prices. We have no alternative but to reflect this in our new price list.

On a more positive note, there are lots of good wines at reasonable prices available; Italian wines are a very good example of this.

Very best wishes,

Alexander and Caroline Nall

CHAMPAGNE VOLLEREAUX

Champagne Vollereaux, is managed by Franck Vollereaux and offers a range of styles of Champagne. From the straight forward light and elegant Brut Réserve to the Cuvée Prestige Cuvée Marguerite which wins many awards and rivals the very best Champagnes but at a fraction of the cost. Due to popular demand, we are now supplying half bottles of the Rosé as well as the half bottles of the Brut Réserve.

WHITE BURGUNDY AND BEAUJOLAIS

Our White Burgundies from Louis Latour and Simonnet Fèbvre are still a significant proportion of our sales - for good reason - excellent quality. However, because of the very reduced harvest of 2021 in most areas of Burgundy, we have a very limited availability of Mâcon-Lugny Les Genièvres available. We have introduced a new Beaujolais Villages from Dominique Morel – producing a lovely, juicy cherry red wine from the Gamay grape.

BORDEAUX

The Private Selection and Private Reserve wines come from the longstanding négociant shipper Schroder and Schyler. The Reserve wines are blends from across the appellation but the Selection wines are from individual Château. The Pauillac de Latour is a small parcel from Châtour Latour. New to us is the Château la Bridane from St Julien, which is already well received.
